

9 Writing

Academic

Progress Report Form

What courses did the student take already?

The student completed the foundation courses intro to electronics and linear algebra last semester.

What courses do you recommend for next semester?

I recommend that students take calculus and computer engineering.

How will these courses help the student meet his or her long-term goals?

These courses will help the student complete the foundation education and prepare him for more advanced programming courses.